Aside from the standard response phrases of accepts/regrets, feel free to spice up the wording to fit the excitement of the occasion. Listed are some creative phrases for a response:

Happily Accepts / Regretfully Declines

Yes, Can't Wait / Darn, Wish We Could

Can't wait! / Sad to miss it

Ready To Dance / Sorry, My Dance Card Is Full

Absolutely! Can't Wait!! / Bummer! Can't make it.

Won't Miss It / Will be there in spirit

Will be there! / Can't make it!

Absolutely / Unfortunately

I do / I don't

Delighted to attend / Sending Regrets

But of course, dear! / We'll be toasting from afar!

We'd be delighted! / We regretfully decline.

Can't wait! / Can't come!

Can't wait to celebrate / Sorry to miss the fun

We'll be there / So sorry to miss it

Wouldn't miss if for the world / Will be there in spirit

Looking Forward To The Big Day / Regretfully Cannot Attend

Sunscreen is Packed / Raising a toast from afar

Good News, We'll Be There / Bad News, Can't Make It

My Bags Are Packed / Can't Find My Passport

Let The Good Times Roll / Roll On Without Me

So Happy / So Sad

Love to join you / Broken-hearted cannot attend

Response Envelope

In the most traditional form, the responses go to the parents of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Leo Andrews
1300 35th Street, NW
Camillus, New York 13031

Or a little less traditional:
Silvia and Henry Andrews

But, as the bride, it is fun to receive the responses and see the personal notes from guests.

Mary Andrews
187 Hill Street, Apartment B
Camillus, New York 13031
